The Good Neighbors Graduate Scholarship allows eligible students to receive a discount equal to the difference between the graduate program's resident and nonresident tuition rate per semester credit hour. This discount applies to the first 30 credit hours of the student's degree.