

I. POLICY

regardless of their religious beliefs. Students, faculty, and staff shall not be penalized because of observances of their religious holidays.

II. PURPOSE

This policy and its procedures are intended to instruct students, faculty, and staff employees about how to request religious accommodations and how to grieve noncompliance with this policy or complain about religious discrimination. This policy and procedures are intended to comply with University System of

